He Lauds Progress of the District, and Resolutions Adopted Calling for Im-Attributes Much of It to These Organizations.

lustily and long when the Rev. Father Eugene A. Hannan, rector of St. Martin's, named Commissioner Macfarland as "the next governor of the District."

Commissioner Macfarland himself was the principal speaker and his informal talk-humorous and patriotic as it was-caught the jovial and generous fancy of the diners. William G. Henderson president of the association, presided as toastmaster and introduced the speakers of the evening. The dinner was delightfully appointed and served. There were no wines and Mr. Macfarland said he took this omission as a personal compliment to Father Hannan and himself.

Letters of Regret.

Letters were read from Commissioners West and Biddle, expressing their disappointment at their inability to attend. Commissioner West's recent bereavement made it impossible for him to attend and Colonel Biddle had made a previous engagement with another citizens' association. Gen. George H. Harries came in on a run and left in the same way. He explained he was keeping four engagements last night and that at Freund's was the third.

"I am somewhat surprised," began "I am somewhat surprised," began Commissioner Macfarland, "to see so many of you here on this occasion. Certainly it must be a rare occasion which will lure you from the charms of your own delightful neighborhood. I have heard it said some of you have surrendered so completely to these charms you are unwilling to leave them for business. In charity, though. I have put this down to the lack of street car facilities.

Progress of District.

"We should congratulate one another upon all that has been accomplished in the District under the present form of government in the past twenty-five

"Citizens' associations have played and do play a large part in this progress. They are important factors in municipal life, and it is through them largely that that government of the District is the only government by public opinion in the country."

LAND OF FLOWERS AND SUNSHINE

California Woman's Letter of Special

Interest to People in Washington.

At this season of the year a letter from the land of flowers and sunshine is of special interest to our readers. The following letter from the Holden Drug Co., of Stockton, Cal., one of the largest drug houses on the Pacific Coast, is of especial interest. They write: "En-closed is a letter from one of the most prominent residents of this city. She will not allow her name to be published in the newspapers, but we can furnish it to anyone writing us."

The letter is as follows: "For some four years my daughter has had headaches, which seriously in-terfered with her school work. Until recently we attributed the trouble to eye strain, but happening to notice your advertisement of Hyomei, we were satisfied that her trouble came from ca-within twenty-four hours great relief Whomas H. was experienced, and the loosening of Whittager. 27 mucous matter and the reduction of throat inflammation began. Sixty days' use of Hyomei made nearly a complete recovery, which we consider very satisfactory after nearly four years of ex-pense and fruitless treatment by other methods, and that we feel grateful is to put it mild."

This letter snows that many cases of sickness and debility are simply caused by catarrh, and that they can be cured by Hyomei. This is Nature's own method of curing catarrh, medicating the air

On this latter subject the Engineer Commissioner made it plain to his hearers that his position and that of his two colleagues in the District Bulding had been misunderstood by those who had severely criticised them, such as the members of the Northeast Citizens' Association, which recently attacked Colonel Biddle's policy in this direction.

Policy of Street Building.

He stated last night that it was the bject, not to narrow any streets, but to regulate all of them and to pave only uch space as was justified by the traffic on each particular street. Therefore it had been found sometimes necessary to lessen the distance between curbs though the distance between building lines would remain the same. Golonel Biddle also took occasion to question the advisability of passing the proposed master builders' bill, because of the possibility of raising building prices and limiting the number of build ers. He denied, however, the charges that Inspector Ashford had been unduly influenced in behalf of the bill, saying that Mr. Ashford has simply approved the measure and had nothing to do with urging it before the Commissioners.

Cafe and Tennis Court.

He also dwelt briefly on his cherished scheme, the beautifying of Rock Creek Park, suggesting that Sixteenth Street should be made the boulevard to this park, and that on the large flat near Brightwood Park there should be cafe, tennis court, and golf course.

State Senator Mott of Missouri paid a nigh tribute to Senator Cockrell of that Resolutions were adopted urging that an item of $100,000 be placed in the appropriation bill for the extension, gradpropriation bill for the extension, grad-ling, and improvement of Sixteenth Street at its present width from Piney Branch northward, and $50,000 for the construction of the Sixteenth Street bridge across Piney Branch. Resolutions were also passed urging the opening of Thirteenth, Fourteenth, and Sixteenth Streets extended.

begun by the Bookbinders' Minstrels, who gave a performance under Bernard Spellbinder, as interlocutor. J. Irwin Esterly and Billy Holt took the part of bones, and the tambos were George S. Warren and Luke L. Ludiow. These characters were supported by a chorus of twenty-four, Henry F. Smith acting as musical director.

In the second part Joseph P. Cullen and J. D. McCauley rendered banjo selections; George H. O'Connor sang a new song, "Take Your Hat Off to Casey;" a song and dance sketch was given by little Margaret Ellwood; Henry Heinold, late of the Weber and Fields company, impersonated the "German Senator;" Otto Hammerbacher played Eberle's "Eine Susse Erinnering," and Henry W. Figg and Daniel Hichey did some clever sketches in drawing.
